

Sermon Notes

Our Words Reveal Our Heart

Mt. 12:22-37

Intro.

Big Idea: Our words reveal what is in our heart.

- I. Words express what is contained in our heart. vs. 34
 1. The Pharisees' words revealed hatred for Jesus.
 2. Jesus calls us to speak words of faith.
egs. Mt. 16:15
John 11:25-26
Romans 10:8-11
 3. We will be judged by what we really believe
- II. Only a heart that is right with God can speak well of God.
 1. Our natural hearts are in rebellion with God.
 2. A new heart will express good things toward God.
- III. To improve the words we speak, we must work on our heart.
 1. Let God examine our speech.
 2. We must continually repent and ask for strengthening grace.
 3. We must feed our hearts with good words and good thoughts. Phil 4:8-9
 4. We must see our spoken words as a way of glorifying God.

Concl.

Sermon Notes

Our Words Reveal Our Heart

Mt. 12:22-37

Intro.

Big Idea: Our words reveal what is in our heart.

- I. Words express what is contained in our heart. vs. 34
 1. The Pharisees' words revealed hatred for Jesus.
 2. Jesus calls us to speak words of faith.
egs. Mt. 16:15
John 11:25-26
Romans 10:8-11
 3. We will be judged by what we really believe.
- II. Only a heart that is right with God can speak well of God.
 1. Our natural hearts are in rebellion with God.
 2. A new heart will express good things toward God.
- III. To improve the words we speak, we must work on our heart.
 1. Let God examine our speech.
 2. We must continually repent and ask for strengthening grace.
 3. We must feed our hearts with good words and good thoughts. Phil 4:8-9
 4. We must see our spoken words as a way of glorifying God.

Concl.