

Sermon Notes

The Heart: Where Faith Lives

Romans 10:8-13

Intro.

Big Idea: To believe “in your heart” is to trust in Christ as a core conviction. v.9

- I. Believing in Jesus as a core conviction is a work of God in our heart. v.10
  1. Believing in the resurrection represents the completed work of Christ.
  2. “Heart faith” is trusting in the person of Jesus Christ.

- II. We are to verbally confess as a core conviction. v.9
  1. To testify to ourselves.
  2. To testify to the public.

- III. Heart faith is demonstrated as a core conviction by the actions in our daily lives. James 2:14-19

Concl.

Sermon Notes

The Heart: Where Faith Lives

Romans 10:8-13

Intro.

Big Idea: To believe “in your hear” is to trust in Christ as a core conviction. v.9

- I. Believing in Jesus as a core conviction is a work of God in our heart. v.10
  1. Believing in the resurrection represents the completed work of Christ.
  2. “Heart faith” is trusting in the person of Jesus Christ.

- II. We are to verbally confess as a core conviction. v.9
  1. To testify to ourselves.
  2. To testify to the public.

- III. Heart faith is demonstrated as a core conviction by the actions in our daily lives. James 2:14-19

Concl.